

NOMINATIONS FOR 2010 NAPSA AWARDS

NAPSA is now accepting nominations for the NAPSA awards to be presented at the 2010 annual conference to be held November 8-10 in San Diego, California. Please send the completed application form to Joseph Snyder at the address indicated at the end of this form if you would like to nominate an individual, agency or institution for an award. Preference will be given to NAPSA members. Please note that the only award that requires the recipient to be a NAPSA member is the President's Award. Please check the award for which you are making a nomination and complete additional information requested. Only one award should be checked. If nominating a person for more than one award, a separate nomination form for each award nomination should be submitted. The deadline for receiving the nomination form is June 15, 2010. Any nomination received after the deadline will not be considered. The awards are:

- Rosalie S. Wolf Memorial Award (historically given to a researcher or a person involved with research). This award is given in recognition of a significant contribution to the knowledge and development in the fields of Abuse of Elders or Persons with Disabilities or Adult Protective Services. The nominee does not have to be a NAPSA member to be nominated.
- President's Award This award is given in recognition of outstanding contribution in the field of Adult Protective Services as demonstrated by a dedication to elders and persons with disabilities and the nominee's commitment to improving the quality of services to this population. The nominee must be a NAPSA member to be nominated.
- Spirit of NAPSA Award In Honor of Jan Stiles This award is given to a frontline APS staff person in recognition of significant contribution to the growth and development of the APS program in their community as well as to the field of abuse intervention. The nominee does not have to be a NAPSA member to be nominated.
- NAPSA Collaboration Award This award is given in recognition of significant contribution to the growth and development to the field of abuse of elders and persons with disabilities or Protective Services through collaborative efforts. The nominee does not have to be a NAPSA member to be nominated.
- Joanne Otto Distinguished Service Award This award is given in recognition of significant contribution by an individual or organization to the growth and development of the field of abuse of elders and persons with disabilities or adult protective services. The nominee does not have to be a NAPSA member to be nominated.
